IN MEMORIAM
MAYO—The record of a faithful life, though it may have no place in written history, will always be enshrined in the hearts of those who loved and so, moved to the expression of a simple tribute to such an one, we propose to publish in this column a record of a life, from which, along the humble path he trod so many years he never wavered. ELISHA MAYO, or "Uncle Elisha," was born April 10, 1837, and died at his home in this city June 4, 1915. His parents, Samuel and Fannie Mayo, were slaves and were wedding gifts to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Blanton, Sr., of Amelia County, Va., parents of Mr. T. I. Blanton, of this city, in whose employ "Uncle Elisha" was for many years, and up to the time of his death, and who joins in this memorial to his valued and trusted servant, Elisha Mayo, married and left seven children, namely: Walter L. Mayo, Ella Mayo, Price, Mary Mayo, Rogers, Bettie Mayo, Emma Mayo, and Frank J. Mayo. Of many of those to whom he was so kind and generous in mind, some are now in the beyond, it may be said that in his later days, when his head was bending low, his eyes were dim, and his gentle voice calling him, as in the days before he died. And so, full of years, he has passed peacefully into the humble, though well-spent earthly life, to that reward that knows neither race nor class nor creed. N. X. X.

By C. L. & H. L. Denoon, Real Estate Auctioneers
Public Auction Sale of the Desirable, Centrally Located Detached Brick Dwelling
No. 511 N. Sixth St.
By request we will offer at auction, on the premises, on MONDAY, JUNE 21, at 6 o'clock P. M., the above mentioned property. The improvements consist of a two-story, detached, eight-room brick dwelling. The building is substantial and in first-class condition. This property is well located, one mile from Powhatan Church, and about 15 miles from the city of Richmond, near the Buckingham Road.
In execution of a decree of the Circuit Court of Powhatan County, entered on the 21st day of May, 1915, in the chancery cause of "Uiley vs. Uiley et al.," I will sell at public auction, on the premises,
MONDAY, JUNE 21, 1915, at 4 o'clock P. M., the following described real estate: all that tract or parcel of land, with all the improvements thereon, lying and being in the County of Powhatan, Virginia, in Huguenot Magisterial District, one mile from Powhatan Church, adjoining the lands of B. C. Hopkins and others, of any person believes to be on or under said land, or such minerals as usually abound in the neighborhood of said land.
At the time of the sale, the minerals, if any, will be first exposed to sale, after which the land shall be offered to be on or under said land, or such minerals as usually abound in the neighborhood of said land.
TERMS: One-half of the purchase price to be paid in cash, and the balance in one installment, payable in one year from the date of sale, the purchaser executing a negotiable note for the deferred payment, with interest from the day of sale, and the title to be retained by the court until all the purchase money is paid, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

PUBLIC AUCTION SALE Of That Very Attractive and Commodious Brick Residence, Situated at the Corner of Boulevard and Leonard Street.
At the request of the owner, who is determined to sell, we will offer at auction, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1915, at 6 o'clock P. M., the above mentioned property. The improvements consist of a substantially built, modern three-story and basement dwelling, it being comparatively new in construction. It is well built, and has the latest improvements, such as hot water heat, combination fixtures, four baths (inclusive of servants' bath), etc. The lot has a frontage of 45 feet on Boulevard, and runs back 150 feet to a paved alley in the rear. There is also a garage on the premises. The offering of this handsome property gives a rare chance for home-sellers to secure one of the most desirable homes on this popular thoroughfare. If you want a West End home, do not fail to attend this sale.
TERMS can be made very liberal, and will be announced at sale.
